I. Progress of the project

If the investor's securities account balance is less than the number of cross-border transfer custody applications, the cross-border transfer custody application becomes invalid and will be cancelled.

If the investor continues to declare the cash option after submitting the cross-border transfer custody, the declaration of the cash option will be invalid.

For specific cross-border transfer custody details, please refer to the above