Section 3 Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 72 Independent directors are entitled to propose to the board of directors for convening an extraordinary general meeting. In response to such proposal of the independent directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall, within ten days after receiving such proposal, provide a response in writing to indicate whether or not the board agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the board agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting, a notice to convene such general meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant resolution by the board. Where the board disagrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting, the board shall give reasons for such decision, which shall also be announced.

Article 73 The board of supervisors has the right to propose the board to convene extraordinary general meetings and such proposal shall be made by way of written request(s). The board shall reply in writing regarding the acceptance or refusal to convene an extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receiving the proposal in accordance with the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the board agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting, a notice to convene such general meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant resolution by the board, provided that any changes to the original proposal shall be subject to the consent being obtained from the board of supervisors.

Where the board disagrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting, or where the board fails to provide any response within ten days after receiving such proposal, it shall be deemed that the board has not been able to perform or it does not perform its duty to convene such general meeting, and the board of supervisors may by itself convene and preside over such meeting.

Article 74 Shareholders separately or aggregately holding no less than 10% of the Company's issued shares have the right to propose the board to convene an extraordinary general meeting by way of written request(s). The board shall reply in writing regarding the acceptance or refusal to convene an extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receiving the request in accordance with the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If the board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, notice convening the meeting shall be issued within five days after the board resolved to do so. If the board makes alterations to the original proposal in the notice, consent has to be obtained from the related shareholders.

If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or does not reply within ten days upon receiving the request, shareholders separately or aggregately holding no less than 10% of the Company's issued shares have the right to propose the board of supervisors to convene an extraordinary general meeting by way of written request(s).

If the board of supervisors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, notice convening the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within five days upon receiving the request. Should there be alterations to the original requests in the notice, consent has to be obtained from the related shareholders.

If the board of supervisors does not issue notice of the extraordinary general meeting within the required period, it will be considered as not going to convene and preside over the extraordinary general meeting, and shareholders separately or aggregately holding no less than 10% of the shares of the Company for ninety or more consecutive days have the right to convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 75 If the board of supervisors or shareholders decide to convene the extraordinary general meeting on their own initiative, they shall notify the board in writing and file the notice of meeting with the local office of the China Securities Regulatory Commission and the stock exchanges for records.

Prior to announcement of the extraordinary general meeting resolution, the shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

The shareholders that convene the general meeting shall, upon issuance of the notice for extraordinary general meeting and announcement of the meeting resolution, submit relevant documentation to the local office of China Securities Regulatory Commission where the company is located and the stock exchange.

Article 85 After the issue of a notice of general meeting, the general meeting shall not, without any proper reason, be postponed or cancelled, and the motions set out in the notice of meeting shall not be cancelled. In the event of any postponement or cancellation, the convener shall, at least two business days before the date of the scheduled meeting, make an announcement and state the reason therein.

Section 5 Holding of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 86 The board of directors and other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the good order of the shareholders' general meeting, take measures to deter any act disturbing the meeting, picking quarrels and provoking troubles or infringing the lawful rights and interests of any shareholder, and shall report in a timely manner such act to the relevant department for investigation and punishment.

Article 87 All the shareholders or their proxies recorded in the register of shareholders on the record date are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting, and shall exercise their voting rights pursuant to the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

corporate representative(s) shall enjoy the same legitimate rights as other shareholders including the right to speak and vote; provided that if no less than one person is so authorized, the authorization letter or the proxy form signed by the Recognized Clearing House must specify the number and class of shares that each such person is so authorized. Such duly authorized persons may represent the Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee) to attend the meeting (without producing share certificates, notarized authorization and/or further evidence of duly authorization) to exercise the same powers as if he/she is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 91 Any form issued to shareholders by the board of directors to be used for appointing proxies shall entitle the shareholder, according to his/her intention, to instructing the proxy to separately vote in favor of or against each motion to be proposed at the meeting. Such proxy form shall contain a statement that in default of instructions, the proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit.

meeting without the voting rights.

Article 97 The general meeting shall be chaired by the chairperson of the board. In the event the chairperson of the board is unable to perform his/her duties or fails to perform his/her duties, the general meeting shall be chaired by the vice chairperson. Where the vice chairperson is unable to perform his/her duties or fails to perform his/her duties, the general meeting shall be chaired by a director jointly nominated by no less than half of the directors.

A general meeting convened by the board of supervisors shall be chaired by the chairperson of the board of supervisors. In the event the chairperson of the board of supervisor is unable to perform his/her duties or he/she fails to perform his/her duties, a supervisor jointly elected by no less than half of the supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

A general meeting convened by shareholders shall be chaired by the representative nominated by the convener of such meeting.

In convening any general meeting, if the chairperson of the meeting has violated any rules of meeting such that the meeting may not proceed further, with the consent of shareholders representing no less than half of the voting rights present at such meeting, the meeting may elect a person to chair the meeting so that the meeting may proceed further.

Article 98 The Company shall formulate the procedural rules of the shareholders' general meeting which shall set out in detail the procedures of convention and voting in respect of the shareholders' general meeting (including notices, registration, consideration and approval for proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement on voting results, formation of the resolution of the meeting, meeting minutes and signing, announcements and other similar matters) and the principles of authorization granted to the Board of Directors at the shareholders' general meeting. The scope of authorization shall be specified in details. The procedural rules of the shareholders' general meeting shall be prepared by the board of directors, approved at the shareholders' general meeting and attached to the Company's Articles of Association as an appendix.

Article 99 In the annual general meeting, the board of directors and board of supervisors shall report to the shareholders on their respective work over the past year. Each independent director shall also report their duties accordingly.

Article 100 The directors, supervisors and senior executives shall make response to and give explanation of the inquiries and suggestions made by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 101 Prior to voting, the chairperson of the general meeting shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them. The number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them shall be that as stated in the registration of the meeting.

Article 102 Minutes of shareholders' general meetings shall be recorded by the board secretary. The minutes shall contain the following items:

I. The date, place and agenda of the meeting, and the name of the convener;
II. The name of the chairperson of the meeting, and the names of directors, supervisors, senior executives of the Company present or in attendance at the meeting;
III. The number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of their voting shares and their respective proportions to the total number of shares of the Company; including the number of voting shares held by A-share shareholders (including shareholder's proxy) and H-share shareholders (including shareholder's proxy), each class of shareholders accounting for the proportion of the total shares of the Company respectively;
IV. The proceeding of examination of each motion, summary of the points discussed, the process and results of voting;
V. Questions and proposals put forward by shareholders and the answers or explanation thereof;
VI. Names of lawyers and vote-counters and scrutineers;
VII. Such other matters as shall be recorded in the minutes of meetings pursuant to the Articles of Association.

Article 103 The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes of meetings are authentic, accurate and complete. Directors, supervisors, the board secretary, the convener or his/her representative and the chairperson of meeting present at the shareholders' general meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. Minutes of meetings shall be kept together with the attendance list for shareholders and authorization letters given for proxies, and any other valid information concerning online exercise of voting rights or otherwise. The period of maintaining such records shall be ten years.

Article 104 The convener shall ensure that a general meeting is conducted continuously until resolutions are formed. Where the general meeting is adjourned or the relevant resolutions are not formed for special reasons such as force majeure, all necessary measures shall be taken to re-convene the general meeting as soon as practicable or, alternatively, the meeting shall be terminated, and the related announcement shall be made on a timely basis. Concurrently, the convener shall deliver a report to the branch office of the China Securities Regulatory Commission at the place of the Company and the relevant stock exchange.

Section 6 Voting and Resolution at Shareholders' General Meeting

Article105 Resolutions of general meetings are divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.
An ordinary resolution shall be passed by the holders of half or more of the total number of votes held by the shareholders present in person (or by proxy) at a general meeting.
A special resolution shall be passed by the holders of no less than two thirds of the total number of votes held by the shareholders present in person (or by proxy) at a general meeting.

Article 106 The following matters shall be approved by an ordinary resolution of a general meeting:
I. work reports of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
II. proposals formulated by the board of directors for distribution of profits and for making up accrued losses;

III. appointment and removal of members of the board of directors and the board of supervisors, their remuneration and method of payment of their remuneration;
IV. annual budget and final accounts, balance sheet, profit and loss account and other financial reports of the Company; and
V. annual report of the Company;
VI. the procedural rules of the shareholders' general meeting, the procedural rules of the board of directors and the procedural rules of the board of supervisors;
VII. all matters required to be approved by a general meeting other than those required to be approved by way of special resolution under any law, administrative regulations or the Articles.

Article107 The following matters shall be approved by special resolution of a general meeting:
I. increase or reduction of capital of the Company and issue of any class of shares, warrants or other similar securities by the Company;
II. issue of bonds by the Company;
III. division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
IV. any amendment of this Articles of Association;
V. acquisition or disposal of substantial assets or giving of guarantee in an amount exceeding 30% of the total assets of the Company as shown in its audited financial statements for the most recent period;
VI. share incentive scheme;
VII. repurchase of Company's own shares;
VIII. such other matter provided by the laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association or the SEHK Listing Rules, and matter which has been determined by way of any ordinary resolution by shareholders in a general meeting to have a material effect on the Company and shall be subject to the passing by way of a special resolution.

Article 108 Shareholders (including their proxies) may exercise their voting rights in respect of the number of shares held by them which carry the right to vote. Each share carries out one vote save for the elections of directors and supervisors by cumulative voting. On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his/her proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his/her votes in the same way.

Provided that the passing of any resolution shall be subject to any special rights or restrictions as to voting rights for the time being attached to any class of shares and any provision of applicable laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association. Where any shareholder is, under the SEHK Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted on voting, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Where material matters affecting the interests of small-to-medium sized investors are being considered at a shareholders' general meeting, each vote cast by the small-to-medium sized investors shall be counted separately. Results of votes counted separately shall be disclosed in a timely manner.

The shares held by the Company do not carry any voting rights, and such shares shall not be counted in the shares carrying voting rights of shareholders who are entitled to attend such meeting.

If a shareholder purchases the voting shares of the Company in violation of the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the shares exceeding the prescribed proportion shall not exercise voting rights within 36 months after the purchase and not included in the total number of shares with voting rights attending the general meeting of shareholders.

The board of directors, independent directors and shareholders with no less than one percent of voting shares or investor protection institutions established by laws, administrative regulations or provisions of the China Securities Regulatory Commission may solicit proxies from the Company's shareholders. In soliciting voting rights of shareholders, information such as specific voting intention shall be sufficiently disclosed to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being solicited. Solicitation of voting rights at any consideration, whether in direct or indirect form, is prohibited. Unless under legal terms, the Company shall not propose any minimum shareholding restriction on the solicitation of voting rights.

Article 109 When the general meeting is considering matters regarding connected transactions, connected shareholders shall not participate in the voting, and the voting rights represented by their shares shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. Announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders shall fully disclose the voting of non-connected shareholders.

Article 110 Subject to the general meetings being held legally and validly, the Company shall use different means and measures to provide convenience for shareholders participating in general meetings, including but not limited to provision of online voting platform and other modern information technology.

Article111 The Company shall not, without the prior approval of a general meeting, enter into any contract with any person other than directors or senior executives of the Company whereby the responsibility for the management of the whole or a substantial part of the business of the Company is delegated to such person.

Article112 Lists of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed to the shareholders' general meeting for voting.
Candidates for directors in each term shall be proposed by the previous board of directors. Shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares may propose the candidates for directors.
Candidates for supervisors in each term shall be proposed by the previous board of supervisors. Shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares may propose the candidates for supervisors.
While proposing the candidates for directors or supervisors, the board of directors or the board of supervisors shall consult with the shareholders with best efforts.
The board of directors shall announce the resumes and basic information of these candidates for directors or supervisors.
Each candidate for directors or supervisors shall make a written confirmation, expressing his/her take part in counting and scrutinizing the voting.

There shall be lawyers, representatives of shareholders and reprehensive of supervisors to count and scrutinize the voting jointly when motions are voted on a general meeting. The results shall be declared at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
Shareholders or their proxies, who have cast their votes by internet or other methods, shall have the right to verify their voting results in the corresponding voting system.

Article 122 The conclusion of a general meeting onsite shall not be earlier than internet or other access to the meeting. The chairperson of the meeting shall announce the voting and the results of each motion and shall, on the basis of the voting result, announce whether the motion is approved or not.
The companies, counting officers, scrutinizers, major shareholders, internet service provider and all relevant parties in relation to voting on site, by internet and other voting methods, shall keep confidential of the voting results prior to the official announcement of voting results.

Article 123 A shareholder attending a general meeting shall vote either approval, objection or abstain from each motion in respect of which is to be taken.
Any written vote which is unfilled, wrongly filled, unrecognizable and uncast shall be deemed as a waiver of their voting rights, and the voting results representing the shares held by such voters shall be counted as “abstentions”.

Article 124 If the chairperson of the meeting has any doubt as to the results of a vote on a resolution, he/she may conduct a count of the votes cast. If the chairperson of the meeting fails to conduct a count of votes, any shareholder, whether present in Article 128 If the motion on election of new directors and supervisors, is passed at the general meeting, new directors and supervisors shall take the position on the date when the general meeting is concluded.

Article 129 Where a motion in relation to the payment of cash dividends, stock dividend or the conversion of capital common reserve to share capital has been passed at a general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plans within two months after the conclusion of the general meeting.

Chapter 6 Voting Procedure for Class Shareholders

Article130 A holder of different classes of shares is a class shareholder.
Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Article131 Any proposal by the Company to vary or abrogate the rights of any class shareholder must, prior to its implementation, be approved by a special resolution of a general meeting and by the affected holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with Articles 133 to137 hereof.

Article132 The following events shall be deemed to be a variation or abrogation of the rights of shareholders of a class of shares:

I. an increase or reduction in the number of shares of such class, or an increase or reduction in the number of shares of a class having the same or preferential voting or distribution rights or other privileges as or to the shares of such class;
II. a change of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or a conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or a grant of a right to such change;
III. a removal or reduction of the rights to accrued dividends or the rights to cumulative dividends attached to such class of shares;
IV. a reduction or removal of a preferential right to dividends or to a distribution of assets upon the liquidation of the Company attached to such class of shares;
V. an increase, removal or reduction of conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive rights, rights issue or rights to acquire securities of the Company which are attached to such class of shares;
VI. a removal or reduction of rights attached to such class of shares to receive moneys payable by the Company in specific currencies;
VII. a creation of a new class of shares having the same or preferential voting or distribution rights or other privileges as or to the shares of such class;
VIII. an imposition of or an increase in restrictions on the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class;
IX. an issue of rights to subscribe for, or conv

XII. the variation or abrogation of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article133 Shareholders of an affected class, whether or not otherwise carrying the right to vote at a general meeting shall nevertheless be entitled to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning paragraphs (2) to (8), (11) and (12) of Article 132, but interested shareholder(s) shall have no voting rights at class meetings.

The meaning of an “interested shareholder” is as follows:

I. in the case of a repurchase of shares by the Company by way of a general offer to shareholders in equal proportion or on a stock exchange through public trading in accordance with this Articles of Association, an "interested shareholder" means the controlling shareholder as defined in the Articles of Association;
II. in the case of a repurchase of shares by the Company by an off-market agreement outside a stock exchange in accordance with this Articles of Association, an "interested shareholder" means the shareholder to which the proposed agreement relates; and
III. in the case of a restructuring proposal of the Company, an "interested shareholder" means a shareholder whose obligations will become disproportionately less than the obligation of other shareholders of the same class or a shareholder who has an interest different from the interests of the other shareholders of that class.

Article134 Resolutions of a class meeting shall be passed by the holders of no less than two thirds of the total number of votes held by the shareholders of that class and who are permitted to vote at the class meeting under Article133.

Article 135 When the Company convenes a class meeting, it shall give written notice to all shareholders registered in the register of shareholders in accordance with Article 80 of this Articles of Association, which notice shall set forth the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of that meeting.

Article136 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner as nearly as possible as that applicable to general meetings. The provisions of the Articles relating to the proceedings of general meetings shall apply to class meetings.

Article137 In addition to holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special voting procedures for class shareholders shall not apply to the following: (1) where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares separately or concurrently every 12 months following the approval by a special resolution of a general meeting and the number of domestic shares and the number of overseas listed foreign shares to be issued does not exceed 20 percent of the number of the outstanding shares of the respective classes; (2) the issue of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares pursuant to a plan adopted by the Company upon its establishment and which is completed within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authority.

Chapter 7 Board of Directors

Section 1 Directors

Article 138 Directors shall be natural persons. A person shall be disqualified from being a director of the Company in each of the following circumstances:

I. a person who suffers from any incapacity or restricted capacity from undertaking civil liabilities;

Article 141 Directors shall abide by laws and regulations and the Articles of Association and perform the following duties of diligence:
I. to exercise the powers authorized by the Company in a prudent, careful and diligent way so as to ensure that the commercial activities of the Company are in compliance with PRC laws and regulations and published economic policies, and that the business activities do not exceed the business scope of the Company as registered in the business license;
II. to treat all shareholders equally;
III. to seek to know the operation of the business and administration of the Company in time;
IV. to issue in writing opinions of confirmation to the regular reports of the Company so as to ensure to hinder the exercise of responsibilities by the board of supervisors or supervisors;

VI. other duties of diligence as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 142 A director shall be deemed to be unable to carry out his/her duties if he/she fails to attend two consecutive board meetings in person and fails to appoint an alternate director to attend board meetings on his/her behalf. The board of directors shall propose at the general meeting for the removal of such director. The board of directors shall propose at the general meeting for the removal of the independent director if he/she fails to attend three consecutive board meetings in person.

Article 143 A director may resign prior to the expiration of his/her term of office. If a director resigns from his/her office, he/she shall submit a written notice of his/her resignation to the board of directors. The board of directors shall make a disclosure related thereto within two days.

In the event that the number of board members of the Company falls below the statutory minimum requirement by reason of the resignation, before the newly appointed director serves the directorship, the original director shall continue to perform the director's duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. The reelection shall take effective upon the vacancy filled by the newly appointed director. The remaining members of the board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible in order to appoint a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation.

Except for those set forth in the preceding paragraphs, the resignation of a director shall become effective upon the resignation notice is served on the board of directors.

Article 144 A director shall, upon resignation or expiration of his/her term of office, complete all handover formalities with the board of directors and his/her duty of loyalty and honesty owed to the

XV. to receive reports and examine the work of the manager of the Company;
XVI. such other duties and functions as authorized by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, the shareholders' general meeting or the Articles of Association.

Resolutions of the board of directors on the matters set out in the preceding paragraph, save for items (6), (7) and (12) which shall require the consent of no less than two-thirds of the directors, shall be passed by no less than half of the directors.

Article 151 The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company if the aggregate of the expected value of the fixed assets to be disposed of and the consideration received by the Company on the disposal of fixed assets within the period of four months immediately preceding the proposed

I. the board of directors shall convene at least four meetings every year;
II. all the directors and supervisors shall be notified at least 10 days prior to the convening day of a board meeting.

Article 159 The board meetings shall be convened by the chairperson. Under any of the following circumstances, the chairperson shall convene and preside over an extraordinary board meeting within 10 days upon occurrence of the respective circumstance:
I. the chairperson deems the meeting necessary;
II. shareholders representing no less than 1/10 of all voting rights propose;
III. no less than 1/3 of all the directors propose;
IV. the board of supervisors proposes; or
V. the manager proposes.

Article 160 The notification for an extraordinary board meeting shall be delivered by email, by hand or by fax; the notice period is at least 7 days prior to the convening day of the meeting and shall start from the delivery day of the notice.

Article 161 The notification of a board meeting shall include following items:
I. the date and venue of the meeting;
II. the duration of the meeting;
III. the meeting agenda, the respective resolution proposals and supportive documentation;
IV. the date of delivery of the notification.

Article 162 Except for the share repurchase by the Company pursuant to the stipulated circumstances under items (3), (5) or (6) of Article 29, which shall be approved by the board meeting attended by no less than two thirds of directors, the board meeting shall not be held without presence of half or more of all the directors. The presence for the purpose of this Article means the presence at the commencement of the meeting coupled with the continuous presence during the meeting. One director present shall have one vote. The resolutions made at the board meetings shall be subject to approval of no less than half of all the directors, with the following exceptions:
I. Unless otherwise prescribed as the exceptions in the SEHK Listing Rules, a director shall not have any material interest, or be involved in any connected contract or arrangement or vote on any resolution of the board of directors through himself/herself or any of his/her associates (as defined under the SEHK Listing Rules), nor shall he/she be counted in the quorum present at the meeting. The quorum for such board meeting shall only be half or more of the directors who do not have any connected relationship, and any resolution to be passed by the board of directors shall be subject to affirmative votes of half or more of the directors who do not have any connected relationship. In the event that the directors present falls short of the above requirement, the chairperson may convene a new meeting by means of new invitation and notice two days after the meeting is cancelled. Where the number of directors who are not so connected and present at such board meeting is less than 3, such matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration unless otherwise regulated by relevant laws, regulations or securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed (including but not limited to spherical provisions of the Articles as approved by Hong Kong Stock Exchange).
II. According to the stipulations in the Articles of Association, the board of directors shall decide on the resolution of guarantee matters within its authority. Apart from the approval by half or more of all directors, the resolution shall be approved by no less than two thirds of the directors present at the meeting.

Should there be a tie between negative and affirmative votes on a matter, the chairperson of the board of directors shall have the casting vote.

Article 163 The voting at the meetings of the board of directors shall be in written form.
Subject to guaranteed expression of opinions by directors, the board meetings may be held and the respective resolutions may be made by employing communications enabled by the modern information technology. Under this circumstance, each voter shall affix his/her signatures to the vote and fax it to the secretary of the board of directors. Within 7 days since the closure of the meetings of the board of directors, the original voting ticket shall be sent to the secretary of board of directors.

Article 164 Directors shall attend board meetings in person. A director who participates in the board meeting via modern communication technology as permitted by Article 163 shall be held as if attending the meeting personally. Any director who is unable to attend the meeting for any reason may appoint in writing another director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. One director present at the meeting may represent one or several directors.
The proxy form shall include the proxy's name, matters under commission, scope of authorization and term of the commission. The signature or seal of the director concerned shall be affixed on the proxy form.
The appointed representative shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of his/her authorisation. If a director fails to attend a board meeting and has not appointed a representative to attend on his/her behalf, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her right to vote at that meeting.

Article 165 The board of directors shall cause minutes to be kept of decisions made in relation to matters considered at their meetings, and the minutes shall be signed by the directors attending the meeting. Directors shall assume responsibility for resolutions of the board of directors. Directors who participated in any resolution of the board of directors which contravenes any law, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and causes serious losses to the Company shall be liable to compensate the Company, but if it is proved that a director has stated his/her objection at the time the vote was taken and a record thereof has been made in the minutes of the meeting, that director shall be relieved of liability.
Minutes of board meetings shall be kept in the Company's files for a period of 10 years.

Article 166 The minutes of the board meeting shall include the following contents:
I. the date, venue and convener's name of the meeting;
II. names of directors present at the meeting and directors (alternates) present at such meeting on behalf of other directors;
III. agenda of the meeting;
IV. summary of points raised by directors;
V. manner and result of voting on each matter resolved (and the voting results shall set out the number of votes for, against or abstained a particular resolution).

Chapter 8 Manager and Other Senior Executives

Article 167 The Company shall have one manager, who shall be appointed or dismissed by the board of directors.
The manager, deputy managers, board secretary and head of finance shall serve as senior executives of the Company.

Article 168 The circumstances of disqualification for directors prescribed in Article 138 of the Articles of Association shall be applicable to senior executives.
Provisions regarding the duty of loyalty of directors under Article 140 and of diligence of directors under items (IV), (V) and (VI) of Article 140 hereof shall be applicable to the senior executives.

Article 169 Senior executives shall serve full-time in the Company and receive remuneration.
Any person who takes an administrative role other than a director or a supervisor in the controlling shareholders of the Company shall not serve as a senior executive of the Company.
The senior executives may serve as directors or senior executives at subsidiaries of the Company.

Chapter 10 Obligations of Directors, Supervis ors, Manager, and Other Senior Executives of the Company

Article 195 The validity of an act of a director, supervisor, manager or other senior executives on behalf of the Company vis-a-vis a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularity in his/her appointment, election or any defect in his/her qualification.

Article 196 In addition to obligations imposed by law, administrative regulations or by the rules of the stock exchange(s) on which shares of the Company are listed, each director, supervisor, manager and other senior executives when exercising the functions and powers conferred upon him/her by the Company owes to each of the shareholders the following obligations:

I. not to cause the Company to exceed the scope of operations stipulated in its business license;
II. to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
III. not to take in any manner the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities beneficial to the Company;
IV. not to expropriate the personal rights or interests of shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distribution and voting rights, unless pursuant to a proposed restructuring of the Company submitted to and approved by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 197 Each director, supervisor, manager and other senior executives is under the duty, in the exercise of his/her powers and the discharge of his/her obligations, to exercise such care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Article 198 Each director, supervisor, manager and other senior executives is under the duty, in the performance of his/her official functions, to observe his/her fiduciary duties and not to place himself/herself in a position where his/her own interests may be in conflict with any obligations assumed by him/her. This principle includes (but is not limited to) the discharge of the following obligations:

I. to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
II. to exercise powers within the scope of his/her functions and powers and not to act beyond such scope;
III. to exercise personally the discretion vested in him/her and not to allow himself/herself to act under the direction of another person and, unless and to the extent permitted by law or administrative regulations or with the informed consent of the shareholders' general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his/her discretion;
IV. to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
V. except otherwise provided for in the Articles of Association or with the informed consent of the shareholders’ general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;

VI. without the informed consent of the shareholders’ general meeting, not to use in any manner the Company's property for his/her own benefit;

VII. not to exploit his/her official functions and powers to accept bribes or other unlawful income, and not to expropriate in any manner the Company's property including (without limitation) opportunities beneficial to the Company;

VIII. without the informed consent of shareholders’ general meeting, not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions;

IX. to comply with the Articles of Association, to perform honestly his/her duties and protect the interests of the Company and not to exploit his/her position and official functions and powers to advance his/her own private interests;

X. without the informed consent of the shareholders’ general meeting, not to compete with the Company in any manner;

XI. not to misappropriate the Company’s funds or to advance such funds to any other person, not to open in his/her own name or in another per6ans10909 Tc .14ial f

Company do not necessarily cease upon the termination of his/her tenure of office. The duty of confidence in relation to trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his/her term of office. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time elapsed between the termination of his/her term of office and the occurrence of the relevant event and the circumstances and terms under which his/her relationship with the Company was terminated.

Article 201 Except in the circumstances set out in Article 65 of the Articles of Association, a director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive of the Company may be relieved of his/her liability for specific breaches of his/her duties by the informed consent of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 202 If a director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive of the Company has, directly or indirectly, a material interest in a contract, transaction or arrangement entered into or proposed to be entered into with the Company (other than a contract of service between the Company and the director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive), he/she shall declare the nature and extent of his/her interest to the board of directors as soon as possible, whether or not the relevant matter is normally subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive has disclosed his/her interests to the board of directors in accordance with the foregoing paragraph of this Article and that the Company or for the purposes of enabling him/her to perform his/her official duties;

III. where the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees, the Company may make a loan to or provide a guarantee for a loan to the relevant director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive or the connected persons of the same provided that the terms of the loan or guarantee for a loan are normal commercial terms.

Article 206 A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be repayable forthwith by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 207 A guarantee provided by the Company in breach of the first paragraph of Article 204 shall not be enforceable against the Company, except in the following circumstances:

I. the lender was not aware of the circumstances at the time the loan was advanced to a connected person of a director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive of the Company or its parent company;

II. the security provided by the Company has been lawfully sold by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 208 For the purposes of the foregoing Articles of this Chapter, a “guarantee” includes the undertaking of obligations and the provision of security over property by the guarantor to secure the obligor’s performance of obligations.

Article 209 Apart from any rights and remedies provided by law and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive of the Company is in breach of his/her obligations to the Company, the Company has a right to take the following measures:

I. to claim damages from that director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive in compensation for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;

II. to rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with that director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive or by the Company with a third party (where such third party knew or should have known that such director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive representing the Company was in breach of his/her obligations towards the Company);

III. to require that director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive to account for the benefits obtained as a result of his/her breach of obligations;

IV. to recover any moneys received by that director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive which should have been received by the Company, including (without limitation) commissions; and

V. to demand payment from that director, supervisor, manager or other senior executive of the interest earned or which may have been earned on moneys that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 210 The Company shall, with the prior approval of the shareholders’ general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with each director or supervisor of the Company in respect of his/her remuneration. The aforesaid remuneration shall include:

I. remuneration in respectc isspe

III. remuneration in respect of other services provided in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and its subsidiaries;
IV. moneys payable as severance pay or as consideration for retirement from office of that director or supervisor.

Except pursuant to a contract entered into in accordance with the foregoing provisions, a director or supervisor shall not institute proceedings against the Company for any benefit due to him/her in respect of the matters specified above.

Article 211 The contract entered into between the Company and its director or supervisor shall stipulate that when the Company is being taken over, that director and supervisor is entitled, subject to the informed consent of the shareholders' general meeting being obtained, to receive severance pay or other payment by reason of his/her loss of office or retirement. The foregoing reference to a takeover of the Company is to any of the following circumstances:

I. a general offer made by any person to all shareholders of the Company; or
II. a general offer made by any person, the purpose of which is for the offeror to become the controlling shareholder.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with the provisions stipulated in this Article, then any moneys received by him/her shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares through an acceptance of that offer, and the expenses incurred in making a pro rata distribution of such moneys shall be borne by that director or supervisor and shall not be deducted from those moneys.

Chapter 11 Financial Accounting Bylaws, Dividend Distribution and Audit

Section 1 Financial Accounting System

Article 212 The Company shall formulate its financial and accounting regulations in accordance with relevant requirements of PRC laws, administrative regulations and rules issued by competent authorities.

Article 213 The Company shall prepare a financial report at the end of every financial year and shall cause it to be audited in accordance with law.

The Company shall publish two financial reports every financial year. The interim report shall be published within 60 days after the end of the first six months of the financial year, and the annual report shall be published within 120 days after the end of the financial year.

The Company shall submit annual financial report to the CSRC and the stock exchange within 4 months after the end of each financial year, submit interim financial reports to the branch office of CSRC and the stock exchange within 2 months after the end of the first 6 month of each financial year, and submit the quarterly financial reports to the branch office of CSRC and stock exchange within one month after the end of the first 3 months and the end of the first 9 months of each financial Article 214 The board of directors shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting a financial report prepared by the Company as required by relevant law, administrative regulations or normative documents promulgated by the regional government and regulatory authorities.

Article 215 The financial report of the Company shall be made available at the domicile of the Company 20 days prior to the holding of the annual general meeting of the Company for inspection by shareholders. Every shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain the financial report referred to in this Chapter.

Unless otherwise stipulated in the relevant laws, regulations, the listing rules of stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed and this Articles of Association, a printed copy of the aforesaid financial report or the report of the board of directors together with a balance sheet and profit and loss statement of the Company shall, not less than 21 days before the date of the annual general meeting, be sent by prepaid post by the Company to every holder of overseas listed foreign shares. The address of the recipient shall be the registered address entered in the register of shareholders.

Article 216 The financial statements of the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards, laws and regulations and, in addition thereto shall also be in accordance with either the International Accounting Standards or the accounting standards of the overseas territory where the Company is listed. Where there are material differences between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two accounting standards as aforesaid, then such differences shall be specified in the notes to those financial statements. For the purposes of distributing the profits after tax of the Company in respect of the relevant financial year, the lower amount of the profits after tax stated in the two sets of financial statements as aforesaid shall be taken to be the amount of the profits after tax.

Article 217 Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company must also be prepared and presented in accordance with PRC accounting standards, laws and regulations and also in accordance with either International Accounting Standards or the accounting standards of the overseas territory where the Company is listed.

Article 218 The Company shall not keep separate books of accounts apart from its statutory books of account. The asset of the Company shall not be deposited in any account opened in the name of any individual.

Article 219 Where the Company distributes its after-tax profits of the current year, it shall allocate 10 percent of the profits after tax as the Company's statutory common reserve, provided that no allocation is required if the accumulated statutory common reserve represents no less than 50 percent of the registered capital of the Company.

Where the statutory common reserve fund of the Company is not sufficient to cover the Company's loss from the previous year, the current year profits shall be used to cover such loss before allocation is made to the statutory common reserve fund pursuant to the previous paragraph.

After allocation to the statutory common reserve fund has been made from the after-tax profits of the Company, the discretionary surplus reserve of any amount fund shall be allocated from the after-tax profits upon approval by general meeting.

Any profit after taxation and after making up losses and making appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve shall be distributed by the Company to shareholders in proportion to their shareholdings
Where the general meeting is in breach of the provisions of the preceding paragraph by approving the distribution of profits to shareholders before the Company has made up its losses and made appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve, the shareholders shall return to the Company the profit distributed.
The Company shall not participate in profit distribution in respect of shares held under its name.

Article 220 The Company's common reserves shall be used for making up accrued losses, expanding the business operations or increasing the capital of the Company, but the capital common reserve shall not be used for making up the Company's losses.
When the statutory common reserve is converted into capital, the balance of such reserve shall not be less than 25 % of the registered capital prior to the conversion.
The capital common reserve shall comprise the following sums:

I. The amount of share premium arising from the issue of shares at a premium;
II. Other income required by the financial regulatory authority of the State Council to be appropriated to the capital common reserve.

Article 221 After the passing by the shareholders in any general meeting of a resolution on the proposal for profit distribution, the distribution of dividend (or shares) under such proposal shall be completed within two months after the date of the relevant general meeting.

Article 222 Profits Distribution

I. In order to reward the shareholders initiatively, promote the sustainable and healthy development of the Company, the Company attaches great importance to reasonable investment return to shareholders and investors. The Company shall maintain the continuity and stability, as well as enhance the transparency of the dividend distribution policy to shape a stable return expectation for shareholders and investors.
II. The Company adopts cash dividend distribution as its main profit distribution policy, a combination of cash dividend and share dividend can also be adopted. The Company in principle shall implement a cash dividend distribution once a year unless special circumstances arise.
III. The Company shall follow the procedures specified in this “Articles of Association”, take into consideration such factors as the profits of the year, assets/liabilities ratio, development stage and fund demand, combine with opinions from shareholders, especially small and medium-sized shareholders and independent directors when formulate the interim or annual dividend distribution plan. The plan shall be submitted to the shareholders’ general meeting for approval after reviewing by the board of directors:

1. If the Company profits during the annual reporting period and the accumulative undistributed profit is positive, the Company shall implement a certain ratio of cash dividend distribution. Unless there are special circumstances, the sum of the cash dividends (including the interim cash dividends) shall not be less than one third of the net profit attributable to shareholders of the parent company.
2. In particular cases, if a cash dividend distribution proposal is not so made by the Company, the reason and the use of the undistributed funds retained in the Company shall be disclosed in its regular reports, and the independent directors of the Company shall issue an independent opinion on this matter.

IV. Independent directors may solicit the opinions from small and medium-sized shareholders and make a dividend distribution proposal to be submitted directly to the board of directors for reviewing.

V. Prior to the reviewing of the dividend distribution plan and/or the conversion of capital reserve into shares capital plan (if any) by the shareholders' general meeting,

Article 233 The appointment, removal, and non-re-appointment of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting and reported to the securities regulatory authority at the place of the Company for record.

Where a resolution is proposed to be passed at a general meeting to appoint an accounting firm not currently in office to fill a casual vacancy in the office of accountants, or to re-appoint a retiring an accounting firm which was appointed by the board of directors to fill a casual vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

I. The proposed resolution for appointment or removal shall be sent, before the issue of the notice of general meeting, to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or which proposes to leave office or which has left office in the relevant financial year.

Leaving office includes a removal, resignation and retirement.

II. If the accounting firm leaving office makes representations in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of its representations, the Company shall implement the following measures (unless the representations are received too late):

1. state in the notice given in connection with the resolution the fact that representations have been made by the accounting firm leaving office:
2. send to every shareholder in the manner prescribed by the Articles a copy of the representations as an enclosure to the notice of general meetings.

III. If the representations of the relevant accounting firm are not dispatched by the Company in accordance with item (2) above, that accounting firm may request such representations be read at the general meeting and may make further submissions.

IV. An accounting firm leaving office shall be entitled to attend:

1. the general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise expire;
2. the general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy arising from its removal;
3. any general meeting convened as a result of its resignation.

An accounting firm leaving office shall be entitled to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, the meetings referred to above, and to speak at any such meeting on any matter which concerns it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 234 If the Company removes or does not re-appoint an accounting firm, it shall notify the accounting firm sixty (60) days in advance. The accounting firm shall be allowed to state its opinion at the time when the shareholders' general meeting is voting for removal of the accounting firm.

An accounting firm tendering resignation shall inform the shareholders' general meeting as to whether there is any irregularity on the part of the Company.

An accounting firm may resign from its office by a notice in writing deposited at the Company's domicile. Any such notice shall be effective on the date on which it is deposited at the domicile of the Company or on such later date as may be specified therein. Such notice shall contain either of the following statements:

1. A statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
2. a statement of any circumstances of which an account ought properly to be given.

The Company shall within 14 days after its receipt of the notice referred to in the preceding paragraph above send a copy of the notice to its supervisory authority. If the notice contains a statement referred to in item (2) of the preceding paragraph, a copy of that statement shall be deposited at the Company for inspection by the shareholders. The Company shall also send a copy of such statement to every holder of overseas listed foreign shares by prepaid post to their addresses recorded in the register of shareholders. The aforesaid copy of the statement may also be posted on the website of Stock Exchange of Hong Kong in accordance with the SEHK Listing Rules and following the relevant procedures.

Where the notice of resignation of the accounting firm contains a statement of circumstances of which an account ought properly to be given, the accounting firm may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting to receive an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation between a holder of overseas listed foreign shares and the directors, supervisors, manager or other senior executives of the Company, or between a holder of overseas listed foreign shares and a holder of domestic shares, the parties colrorned shall refer that dispute or claim to arbitration.

When a dispute or claim of rights referred to in the preceding paragraph is submitted for arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall, where such person is the Company, the Company's shareholders, directors, supervisors, or other senior executives of the Company, comply with the arbitration.

Disputes relating to whether or not a person is a shareholder and disputes relating to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

II. An applicant for arbitration may refer the matter to the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission for arbitration in accordalro with its arbitrat ion rules or, alternatively, to the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre for arbitration in accordalro with its securities arbitration rules. Once the applicalt refers a disput e or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body selected by the applicalt.

If the party applying for arbitration selects for arbitration by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, then either party shall be entitled to request, in accordanro with the requirements of the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, that the arbitration be conducted in Shenzhen.

III. If arbitration is sought to resolve a dispute or claim referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, PRC laws shall be applicable, save as otherwise prescribed by laws or administrative regulations.

IV. An award made by the arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding on all parties.

Chapter 16 Supplementary Provisions

Article 267 Definitions

I. A "controlling shareholder" refers to the controlling shareholder defined in accordanro with the securities supervision and administration regulations of the plaro where the Company's shares are listed. The obligations and regulatory requirements of the "controlling shareholder" in the Articles of Association shall be implemented in accordanro with the securities supervision and administration regulations of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

II. A "de facto controller" refers to anyone who is not a shareholder but is able to hold actual control of the acts of the Company by means of investment relations, agreements or any other arrangements.

III. "Connected relationship" refers to the relationship between the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, directors, supervisors, or senior executives of the Company and the enterprise directly or indirectly controlled thereby and any other relationship that may lead to the transfer of any interest of the Company. However, the enterprises controlled by the state do not incur a connected relationship simply because their shares are controlled by the state.

IV. "Manager" refers to the president in the senior executives of the Company; "Vice manager" refers to the vice president in the senior executives of the Company.

Article 268 The board of directors may formulate detailed rules for the Articles of Association in accordance with the provisions hereof, but the detailed rules for the Articles of Association shall not conflict with the provisions hereof.

Article 269 The Articles of Association are written in Chinese. In case of any discrepancy between the Articles of Association in any other language or in different versions, the Chinese version of the Articles of Association after the latest filing and registration in Hubei Market Regulation Administration shall prevail.

Article 270 In the Articles of Association, the terms "no less than", "or more", "within", "no more than", and "or more" include the given figure; the term "less than", "more than", "below" and "beyond" do not include the given figure.
